In January we wrapped up the last portion of our large equipment grant in Quincy. We replaced the storage walk-ins in mid-January. Upon demolition we discovered that the old units had been leaking water for a very long time, causing mold and rot. There was damage to the flooring and walls. The effected areas were removed and remediated. Overall, this portion of the project was completed according to the established timeline.

For the new year we updated all personnel materials which included: wage scale, job descriptions, employee handbook, benefits information, and more. This information is available to the staff electronically and on paper. There are HR resource binders at each location with all necessary information included. All managers have been shown how to access this material as needed.

We continued to struggle with the consequences of the Avian Flu outbreak. Eggs and dairy are in short supply. There have been a number of deliveries in which we did not receive eggs at all after ordering 50+ cases. We continue to update shoppers with a permanent link on our website showing current out of stocks. This is updated every Monday.
